

The following information was obtained from the records of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Division of Child Development and Disability Services, Bureau of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities, Office of Policy and Planning, Washington, D.C.: The number of children who were referred to the program during the period January 1, 1975 through December 31, 1976, by state or local health departments, was 1,000. Of these, 100 were referred by private physicians, 100 by public health nurses, 100 by social workers, 100 by teachers, 100 by parents, 100 by other community agencies, 100 by religious organizations, 100 by voluntary health agencies, 100 by government agencies, and 100 by other sources. The total number of referrals was 1,000. The number of children who were accepted for admission to the program during the same period was 800. Of these, 80 were accepted by private physicians, 80 by public health nurses, 80 by social workers, 80 by teachers, 80 by parents, 80 by other community agencies, 80 by religious organizations, 80 by voluntary health agencies, 80 by government agencies, and 80 by other sources. The total number of acceptances was 800.

Frantz F. Jules

3617

INTERFERENCE SEARCHED
Class	Subclass	Date	Examiner

[illegible]